RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives of the 1st Called Session of the 60th Legislature has completed its labors, under the able leadership of Speaker Ben Barnes, resulting in constructive legislation in behalf of the people of Texas: and

WHEREAS, Throughout this session, a general spirit of harmony and purpose has prevailed in this House, and, even though there have been normal differences of opinion expressed, the decorum of the House of Representatives has prevailed, without exception: and

WHEREAS, This faith and confidence of members of the 1st Called Session of the 60th Legislature in its Speaker, Ben Barnes, is a tribute to the competence and integrity of its able Speaker, and to the manner in which he has discharged his duties; and

WHEREAS, Members of the House of Representatives of the 1st Called Session of the 60th Legislature wish to express their gratitude to Speaker Barnes; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the State of Texas express its appreciation to Speaker Barnes and commend him for the courage, fairness, and wisdom that have marked his distinguished leadership throughout this session.
